

Genealogy research – Stolz

Towns: Niezuchów, Borysław
Names: Stolz, Trinkler

Based on the information you provided me with, I started with finding birth record of Sidney Trinkler, whose place of birth was given as Niezuchów. Most of the first names you gave me were definitely Americanized but I was able to figure out what the original, Hebrew version were (due to the fact most of your ancestors were named after their grandparents)

Sidney was born as Symche Trinkler in Niezuchów house No.133 on November 2nd 1902 to:

- Leib Trinkler recte Flaumenbaum from Niezuchów
- Sura Trinkler recte Flaumenbaum living in Niezuchów, daughter of Symche & Chaje Stolz from Borysław
- (Recte indicates their mother's maiden name.)

He was circumcised on November 9th. The witnesses are listed as: Hersch Trinkler from Niezuchów and Naftala Haendel from Zawadów.

Symche is registered as a legitimate child of a married couple and the note says his parents got married in 1901.

You can see his original birth record below:

Checking birth records until 1913 I came across only one more record that refers to Sidney's sibling. Unfortunately, the first page is missing, so we do not know the first name of the child nor the date of birth. (I assume this was Hymie/Hyman Trinkler.) Supposedly it was January 1904 when the child was born to Sura Trinkler recte Flumenbaum, living in Niezuchów – daughter of Symche Stolz & Chaje Stolz from Borysław.

The witnesses were: Józef Stolz from Niezuchów and Hersch Trinkler from Niezuchów. The next column gives the name of the person who circumcised the child so we know it was a boy.

There were no other children born to that couple and registered in Stryj until 1913. I decided to look for their marriage record.

The marriage took place on August 22nd 1901 in Stryj between:

- Leib Trinkler recte Flaumenbaum, born in Tejsarów (Zydaczow district) in 1876, living currently in Niezuchów (Stryj district), single – son of Hersch Trinkler (the trader) and Sobla Flaumenbaum from Niezuchów,
- Sura Stolz born in Borysław (Drohobycz district), single, daughter of Symche Stolz & Chaje Stolz nee Badian from Borysław. Sura was born on April 11th 1880.

The original, 2page record is presented below:

Since you were mostly interested in the Stolz family, I focused on the information about Sura (known to you as Sadie). Knowing her date of birth (April, 1880) and place of birth (Borysław) I located her as well!

Sura Stolz was born in Borysław, house No. 172 on April 11th 1880 to:

- Simche Stolz – owner of the house in Borysław,
- Chaje Badian – living with Simche Stolz in Borysław, daughter of Moses & Keila Badian from Komarno

The note on the 2nd page says that parents of the child got married on December 27th 1890 in Borysław and since then the child is considered as a legitimate child of that couple.

- Ester Stolz was born on October 11th 1878 in Boryslaw to Simche and Chaje.

- A stillborn daughter of Symche and Chaje was born in Boryslaw on August 27th 1886

- Reisel Stolz was born on September 14th 1888 in Boryslaw No.810 to Simche Stolz and Chaja Badian – daughter of Moses and Keila – traders from Komarno

- Izrael Moses Stolz was born in Boryslaw No. 810 on August 6th 1895 to Simche Stolz and Chaje Stolz. From that record I was also able to read out the occupation of Simche Stolz – he was a watchman of the mineshafts (possibly oil well) in Boryslaw

The reason why no more children were found (including Harry) is that some years are missing. I went through all available birth records that are: 1878-1886, 1888, 1889, 1894-1913. Assuming Simche and Chaje had some more children born either in 1887 or possibly between 1890-1893 – there was no way to find them as these records do not exist anymore. From one of the files you sent me we know that Harry(Shea) was born December 10, 1890. It seems he was named after his paternal grandfather (spelled in the records Schia).

I was also able to find a marriage record of Simche and Chaje that happened in 1899 but the entry was made in a book for 1900.

It says that on December 27th 1899 in Boryslaw there was a marriage between:

- Simche Stolz, born in Horodyszcz, 50 years old, son of Schia and Ester Stolz (both dead- innkeepers in Horodyszcz)
- Chaje Badian, born in Komarno, daughter of Moses and Keila Badian (both dead) – traders from Komarno. Chaje's age is given exactly: she was 43 years, 8 months and 4 days old. (which makes her date of birth as April 23rd 1856)

The current map, presents all of the places mentioned in the description of the records.

1. The oldest generation we know about was the Stecher family that came from Stryj. Daughter of Mayer Stecher and Chaje Gitel Stecher – Keila Stechar was born around 1797 in Stryj (as her death record says).
2. Keila Stecher got married to Moses Hersch Badian from Komarno, and they had a daughter – Chaje Badian born there.
3. Chaje Badian got married to Symche Stolz from Horodyszczce. His parents were innkeepers there.
They got married in Boryslaw where Symche had worked. That is also where their children were born.
4. The Trinkler family originates from the area of Żydaczów but Leib used to live in Nieżuchów when he got married to Sura Stolz. Niezuchów belonged to the synagogue in Stryj.

You can also see an old map from the days it was all Poland territory (however under Austrian control).
